Hometown Country Fair Returns

After its overwhelming success the last two years, the Robinson Barracks Youth Services hometown fair is back, bigger and better than ever.

The fair starts at 6 p.m. on May 15 with music and karaoke in the fest tent. The entertainment runs until midnight. Saturday hours are noon to midnight and Sunday from noon to 6 p.m. This event German-American is open to everyone. The length of the fair has been extended to accommodate all of the events.

The official opening ceremony starts at noon on Saturday, followed by a pet parade. While an agenda was not available at press time, you can most certainly look forward to carnival rides, game booths, a pre-teen pageant, talent show, mini Olympics, a dunking booth, a special sword fight demonstration and a Harley Davidson show with games and lots of prizes. McDonalds will once again be bringing the bouncing castle for the kids. The fair will also feature all your favorite fest foods that make this type of event so much fun. Circle your calendar and call all your friends. Make sure you're at the fair on May 15, 16 and 17. For more info call Lillian Quehl at 0711-819-6016. Special thanks to the many volunteers who help make this event possible, and to the loyal sponsors who help underwrite the expenses.

COMMUNITY INFO

National Library Week

Patch Library celebrates National Library Week from April 19 to 25. "Global Reach, Local Touch" is the theme for this year's National Library Week. Help the Patch Library celebrate this very important week by attending an open house on April 19 at 2 p.m. They will have refreshments, goodies and even some door prizes.

Throughout the week, the library will hold introductory internet sessions to acquaint new users with the world wide web and electronic mail. You can visit faraway places such as the Louvre and the United Nations. Sessions will be held each day from April 20 through 23 from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. and 2:30 to 3:30 p.m. Sessions are limited to four people. Call the library at 0711-680-5232 to sign up or stop by.

DOIM Workshop

The Regional Service Center will host a Directorate of Information Management workshop on April 30 from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in the Patch Officers Club. All information management officers and interested personnel are invited to attend. For more info call Mrs. Sehra at 0711-729-2918.

PES Book Fair

The Patch Elementary School Spring Book Fair will be April 29 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.; April 30 from 9 a.m. to 2:15 p.m.; and May 1 from 9 a.m. to 2:15 p.m. A selection of more than 1,500 books is available for the preschooler through sixth graders. Prices range from $3 to $7. Books will be displayed in the foyer of the school. The community is invited to support this worthwhile fundraiser for the PES Parent Teacher Organization. For more info call Deb Dratch at 0711-687-7624.

USO Raffle

The Stuttgart United Service Organization is holding a travel raffle with a drawing on April 30. Proceeds benefit USOs throughout Germany. Tickets are $1 each or 6 for $5. Prizes are two round-trip airline tickets to the states, car rental certificates, gift certificates, rail passes and much more. Call 0711-680-5677 for more information.

Motorcycle Licensing

Due to the projected high demand for motorcycle licenses, the Drivers Testing Station located on Patch Barracks in building 2318, room 111, will conduct motorcycle testing beginning April 17 and will continue every two weeks thereafter. Classroom instruction will begin at 8:30 a.m. and end at noon. Road testing will be from 1 to 4 p.m. For more information call 0711-680-8755.

OPMS Briefings Change

Previously, OPMS XXI speaker, BG Hagenbeck, was scheduled to present two State of the Officer Corps briefings on May 1 at 9:30 a.m. and noon at the Patch Theater. However, BG Hagenbeck will present only one briefing on May 1 at 9:30 a.m. In lieu of the second briefing, BG Hagenbeck would like to invite all Army colonel (06) and above senior leaders in the Stuttgart community to participate in a no-host working lunch on May 1 from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Patch Officers Club. For more info call 2nd Lt. Yerg at 0711-729-2161.

Bus Schedule Feedback Needed

The installation bus schedules were changed on April 1. New schedules will be evaluated for the next 45 days to determine if added stops and time changes are working. It is important that customer feedback is provided to Capt. Taylor at 0711-729-2452 regarding these changes. If you have any suggestions or comments, please express them. You may also email your comments (dol-pt@email.moehringen.army.mil).

VA Briefing

The Army Career and Alumni Program is sponsoring a visit from a Veteran's Administration representative on April 30 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. The briefing will take place at the Patch Barracks Theater. The representative will also be available to meet with clients individually. For more info and details call 07031-15698.

Military Band Concert

The 14th International Military Band Concert will be held April 24 to 26 at the Hanns-Martin-Schleyer-Halle in Bad Cannstatt. Performances will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 2:30 p.m. Sunday. Bands from various European countries, as well as the U.S. military and German Bundeswehr bands, will perform for the benefit of the Baden-Wuerttemberg Multiple Sclerosis Fund. Military personnel, family members and U.S. civilians may purchase reduced-price tickets for April 24 and 26 performances. In addition, on April 23 there will be a scheduled rehearsal from 7 to 11 p.m. Soldiers, along with spouses and guests, are invited to attend this rehearsal free of charge.

Pfennig Bazaar Coming

Presorting for the Pfennig Bazaar has started for this year. Items can be dropped off on Wednesdays between 10 a.m. and noon at building 2323 on Patch Barracks, behind the car wash. Items may also be placed in the drop box or at Kelley Barracks in building 3312, near the Laundromat. For more info call Bobbie Lueking at 0711-687-7333 or Sue Carson at 0711-726-1305.

Infant, Toddler Screenings

In celebration of the Month of the Military Child and Week of the Young Child, Child Development Service, in cooperation with the Education and Developmental Intervention Service Clinic (formerly known as EFMS), is offering free developmental screenings for children 2 years, 9 months and under. These screenings will assess the areas of language development, cognition, motor skills, social skills and self-help skills. Screenings will be offered at Patch CDC April 27 (0711-680-5123); Panzer CDC April 29 (07031-15619); and Kelley CDC May 1 (0711-729-2900).

If you are interested in having your child participate in the screening, notify the front desk personnel at one of the CDCs by April 23. If you would like to have your child screened but are unable to participate during one of the scheduled dates call 07031-15697/547 for info.

Health Clinic News

The Stuttgart Health Clinic offers the following points for community members:

For after duty hours help, call a nurse at the Heidelberg emergency room at 06221-172891.

Self care classes are given on the first and third Wednesday of every month at 6 p.m. in the clinic. Units may also make arrangements for these classes. Go to the classes to learn to take care of yourself. Once you have attended, you can receive over-the-counter medications free of charge at the pharmacy.

Tobacco cessation classes are held quarterly. Call 0711-680-8209 to schedule one.

Children are not permitted in the clinic unless they are patients. This will decrease the possibility of them being exposed to illnesses.

The clinic asks for your patience when working with patient liaisons. Currently, they are only at a 50-percent staffing strength. Steps are being taken to find additional staff members.

For more info, call the clinic at 0711-680-8610.

ARTS & CRAFTS

Gussy Goose

Does silk ribbon embroidery look wonderful to you but seem like it must be too hard? Learn the ins and outs from a pro! Carol Thenot will soon be at the Gussy Goose to share her knowledge and love of silk ribbon embroidery.
